Data protection

Any processes of personal data shall be made pursuant to local legislation, including, but not limited to, the Cyprus Law (The Processing of Personal Data (protection of individuals) Law 138 (I) 2001 as amended), and when applicable from 25 May 2018, the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The “Controller” is Ctl Eurocollege, and personal data shall have the same meaning as in the Cyprus Law and the GDPR.

Your personal data will be processed only by the competent personnel and staff of the College. This data will be processed in order to comply with local and international laws, regulations and standards. You are informed and acknowledge that the College may legally conduct any necessary and immediate processing of your personal data for the purposes of the College carrying out its legal obligations and legitimate interest. Your personal data may be shared among the involved governmental departments and or associates/agents.

You reserve the right to object, grant access, and be kept informed on any matter pertinent to your personal data. Your personal data will only be retained for as long as necessary, unless any legislation requires for a specific retention period. Furthermore, should you disagree with or object to any matter concerning the processing of your personal data, you have the right to put this in writing to the Ctl Eurocollege.

The College does not disclose your personal data to third parties, except where necessary for the purposes of professional, legal, or accounting obligations and/or advise to the College. These third parties are required to comply with the applicable EU data protection law and standards and to use your personal data strictly for the purposes described in this Policy.

The College will take appropriate technical and organisational measures intended to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of your personal data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, your personal data.

Evidence of English language abilities.

(This applies for the programmes in which English is the language of instruction)

The language of instruction at Ctl Eurocollege is English for the majority of Programmes offered.

Candidates who are not native speakers of English need to provide evidence of adequate command of this language, such as IELTS, TOEFL and IGCSE certificates.

Students who cannot provide the above evidence are required to pass the College English Language Test (CELT). Students who do not achieve the required pass mark have to enroll in the Preparatory Programme provided they satisfy the other admission requirements.
