

Course Title	SOCIOLOGY
Course Code	LIB 104
Course Purpose and Objectives	The purpose of this course is to cultivate the ability of the students to observe, understand and recognize the structure of the society and how it operates. This will be possible within the study of general social theories and the study of several case studies during the course.
Learning Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Explain the importance of sociology and which the main sociological theories are. 2. Identify sociological terms as social stratification, society, culture, globalization 3. Discuss social interaction through a sociological imagination 4. Identify their own status and analyze the social behavior in different cultures. 5. Explain important matters in personal lives, communities and the world
Course Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduction to Sociology • Culture and Social Structure • Status, Role Socialization and Personality • Social Stratification and Social Perspectives • Race and Ethnic Relations • Globalization and Social Change • Sociology and Health • Woman and Inequality • Poverty, Social Exclusion and Welfare • Politics, Government and Social Movements • Social Changes: Art-Internet-Media • Family, Marriage, Religion